PROFIT GETTING ON THE FARM

NEVER before in a half century have there been such possibilities for profit in farming—never before were prices of farm products so uniformly high. But the farmer who gets the big profits must PRODUCE—and utilize to the best advantage all he grows.

This is the day of the Silo, the Grain Bin, the storm-proof Barns, the Implement Shed—proper storing and housing equipment for the modern farm.

Get YOUR share of today's—and tomorrow's—farm profits! Build NOW the structures you need. Their cost is trivial compared with their earning capacity.

You will be surprised how inexpensively you can supply your farm building needs. It will pay you to get some of our FREE booklets on building, with working plans of bins, implement sheds, barns, etc.

Make it a point to visit our yard the very next time you are in town.

DEATH CHARLES WEIL OCCURS THURSDAY AT HOME ON BROADWAY

Funeral is To Be Held This Morning at Ten O'clock, Under Masonic Auspices, at the Residence, Rabbi Stern of Kelly Field Officiating

In the death of Charles Weil, yesterday morning at six o'clock at the family residence on South Broadway, Nueces County and South Texas lost a prominent citizen. Mr. Weil was born at Sonhouse, Alsace, Lorraine, on Feb. 1, 1846. He came to the United States when he was seventeen years of age, landing at New Orleans, where he remained for four years. He had been a resident of Corpus Christi for forty-eight years, and during the whole of that time, up until a year or two ago, he was actively identified with business, and was too many associated with the Corpus Christi National Bank, an institution owes much to his business foresight.

January 1, 1874, Mr. Weil married Sarah Hyman. He is survived by his wife and eleven children, Mrs. Mrs. S. J. Lichtenstein, Simon, Mrs. Moise, Mrs. L. Karrer, Mrs. J. Schwartz, Sylvan, Mrs. J. M. Alexander, Joel and Estelle, and by twelve grand children, all of whom are living and residing in Corpus Christi.

General services will be held at the residence this morning at ten o'clock. Rabbi Stern of Kelly Field, presiding officer, will make the opening address in the First Masonic Temple, under Masonic auspices. The pall bearers will be Dr. T. A. Anderson, E. R. Kloberg, Geo. R. Clark, Dr. W. E. Carruth, R. R. Savage and H. Mehl. The Masons will assemble at the hall at nine o'clock. Out of respect, the City Hall, Corpus Christi National Bank and M. Lichtenstein & Sons will remain closed until noon.

JEWISH SERVICES IN METHODIST S. S. ROOM TONIGHT 7.30 O'CLOCK

Rabbi Stern of the Hebrew Union College Who is in Charge of the Jewish Welfare Board at Kelly Field Officiates

Jewish New Year services will be held in the Sunday School room of the First Methodist Church tonight at 7.30 o'clock and Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Stern of the Hebrew Union College who is in charge of the Jewish Welfare Board at Kelly Field will officiate.

The Jewish New Year (Yom Ha-ashurim) 5679—which will be observed on Saturday, September 7, marks the beginning of the principal holiday season of the Jewish year. While the day is really the new moon of the seventh month (Tishri)—the calendar beginning with the spring month—Nisan—yet the religious importance of the month is emphasized this particular new moon observance that it gradually assumed the importance of the New Year day. It is the beginning of the cycle known as the ten days of "repentance" ending with the holiest day of the year, the day of Atonement. In contrast with the rest of the period, which are days of sadness and penitence, the New Year days always have been observed among the Jews as a day of solemn joy and happiness. It is called in the Bible the "Day of Memorial" and to the Jew it means the recording of the deeds of the past year for judgment—a judgment which is, however, suspended until after the day of Atonement when through true repentance and sincere confession the sins of the past may be blotted out and new opportunity afforded to live a life of purity and quietness.

It is also called the "Day of the Blowing of the Trumpet" and around this ceremony—the blowing of the Shofar or ram's horn—the service of the day revolves. The ram's horn is supposed to refer to the salvation of Isaac and the substitution of a ram in his place when Abraham was about to slay him in his wrong understanding of God's demand for a sacrifice (Genesis xxii).

As is the case with all Jewish holidays, the observance begins at the preceding sundown Friday, and in the orthodox synagogues lasts until sundown Sunday—two days being observed in place of one as is the custom in the reform synagogues.

BAILEY'S PLAN FOR SELLING WAR STAMPS PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Sales At Booths Placed in Lobbies of the Three Banks in Corpus Christi Total $1,553.50 Thursday, Committee of Women Being in Charge

Sales of War Savings Stamps in Nueces County are now showing a decided increase as the result of a new sales plan inaugurated by W. C. Bailey, chairman of the Nueces County War Savings Committee.

Booths have been established in the lobbies of banks, with committees of women in charge. Mrs. L. R. Loving and Miss Anna French, who had charge of the booth in the City National Bank yesterday, sold $1,200 worth of the stamps. Mrs. Oliver Bird and Miss Anna Mae Gibson, at the Corpus Christi National Bank, had total sales amounting to $190 and Mrs. L. H. Buskin and Miss Elanna Born, at the First State Bank, reported sales for the day of $163.50, making a total for Thursday of $1,553.50.

The same plan will be started at once in the banks at Bishop and Robstown and a booth will also be placed in the lobby of the Corpus Christi Postoffice and probably others will be provided in the department stores. Mr. Bailey is confident that this plan will result in sales aggregating at least $5,00 daily during the next sixty days.

Unofficial reports show that up to September 3, Nueces County men, women and children had invested approximately $175,000 in stamps. The quota for the county is $212,000.

BROWNSVILLE PROVIDES FINE DOWNTOWN CLUB FOR THE ENLISTED MEN

Representatives of War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities Tell of New Home Outfitted for Soldiers Stationed at Fort Brown

Members of the Brownsville War Camp Community Service as well as other men and women of the Border City are taking a splendid interest in the welfare of the soldiers stationed at Fort Brown, according to H. E. Bilkey, field representative of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, who has just returned from a week's trip to Brownsville.

The Old Vivian Theatre has been completely outfitted as a downtown club for the soldiers located in the city of Brownsville, said Mr. Bilkey.

It is a modern club in every respect, with reading and writing rooms, a theater conducted by the Red Cross, ballroom, stage, rest room and a lounge room for the men equipped with shower baths and all other modern conveniences.

The Brownsville War Camp Community Service has arranged for a program for each night during the week. Monday night will be open house. Each Tuesday night one of the companies of troops will give an entertainment. Wednesday night the club women will be in charge. Thursday night will be for dancing instruction. The program for each Friday night will be what we term "sitting around the Post." The weekly hop will be on Saturday nights.

In addition to the details of non-commissioned officers in charge of the Club, Colonel Shoultz has detailed a lieutenant to have charge of the entertainment. The club is at the disposal of the enlisted men at any time during the night. Only girls who have distinguished cards will be admitted to the dances and various entertainments. Only "daylight" dancing will be permitted.

Mr. Bilkey on his trip to Brownsville was accompanied by A. A. Fiske, district representative for the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, and W. C. Wright who will be in charge of the Corpus Christi Brownsville Lodge district making his headquarters in this city. Mr. Bilkey will go to El Paso as soon as possible.

Messrs. Fiske, Bilkey and Wright will go to Laredo today to spend several days, after which they will return to Corpus Christi to further the work of the organization in this city.

TEACHERS ARE GUESTS AT ROTARY LUNCHEON

Faculty of South Texas Teachers Institute Attend Weekly Meeting and Make Addresses on School Work

The Part that the School Teacher is Playing in Helping to Win the War

“The Part that the School Teacher is Playing in Helping to Win the War” was the subject of a splendid talk made before the Rotary Club at the luncheon yesterday noon at the Nueces Hotel by Prof. L. V. Stockard of Austin, conductor of the South Texas Teachers Institute that is in session here this week. Prof. Stockard and the other members of the faculty of the institute were guests at the luncheon.

Dr. Stockard pointed out the splendid work of both the public schools and of the universities and colleges in equipping young men for their military duties, as well as their labor for those who remain behind to help keep the home fires burning.

Another speaker was Lieutenant T. L. Barnhouse, who was superintendent of Jim Wells County, until called to the colors. He has four brothers in the army and navy and his father is in the work of the Army Y. M. C. A.

Other speakers at the luncheon were Miss Mary Ball, who is superintendent of schools of San Diego, Prof. S. M. Lloyd of Austin, Miss Nina Glass of Waco, County Superintendent Ned Benton, Colonel G. W. Van Duessen of the Fourth Artillery, and A. A. Fiske, field director for the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities.

A gold watch given to the Red Cross was sold at auction during the meeting by Maxwell P. Dunne. It was sold to O. O. Woodman who gave it back to the Red Cross to be sold again.
